Name: _____

Late Romantic Period

1. What song, with its refrain of "Glory, Glory, Alleluia!" was popular among Union troops during the American Civil War?
   a) I WIsh I Was in Dixie
   b) The Bonnie Blue Flag
   c) Battle Hymn of the Republic
   d) Pallets Full of Ballots

2. In standard march form, what section usually follows the second strain?
   a) Duet
   b) Trio
   c) Quartet
   d) Development

3. In standard march form, what key change usually happens at the trio?
   a) The key moves up a fourth (add a flat)
   b) The key moves up a fifth (add a sharp)
   c) The key switches to the relative minor (no key change)
   d) The key switches to the parallel minor (add three flats)

4. What American composer popularized the concert march as conductor of "The President's Own" Marine Corps band?
   a) Henry Fillmore
   b) Patrick Gilmore
   c) Anne McGinty
   d) John Philip Sousa

5. What composer was so popular among Italian nationalists that his name was used as an acronym for "Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy?"
   a) Giacomo Puccini
   b) Antonio Salieri
   c) Giuseppe Verdi
   d) Arthur Fonzarelli

6. What term describes Richard Wagner's philosophy of incorporating non-musical elements such as special effects, pyrotechnics, and set changes to make his operas a "total work of art?"
   a) Zollverein
   b) Gesamtkunstwerk
   c) Götterdämmerung
   d) Donaudampfschiffahrtselektrizitätenhaupt-betriebswerkbauunterbeamtengesellschaft

7. The French Empire of Napoléon III was destroyed by what brand-new country in 1871?
   a) The United Kingdom
   b) The Soviet Union
   c) The Islamic State
   d) Germany

8. The leader of Germany was given what title, based on the Roman title of "Caesar?"
   a) Tsar
   b) Kaiser
   c) Emperor
   d) Chancellor

9. What genre of Japanese music involves a small ensemble performing on large drums?
   a) Goku
   b) Gagaku
   c) Kumi-Daiko
   d) Pikachu

10. Impressionism developed in what country, largely as a reaction against Germany's dominance in the musical world?
    a) Great Britain
    b) France
    c) Italy
    d) Poland